

GUIDE TO SUSTAINABLE TOY BRANDS

Here you can find a list of some of the most sustainable brands of toys. Click on the logo to visit their websites.

Ethical Kidz is a family business based near Bath that aims to encourage children to be creative, healthy and active, environmentally friendly and interested in the world around them.

EnviroToy was set up as a plastic free toy shop, to supply eco friendly toys that children will love whilst also giving 1% back to the ocean.

My Imagination Toys, is an eco-friendly and ethical toy shop, with a wide range of environmentally conscious, durable and stylish toys that are incredibly kid friendly. All toys are made to last and aim to encourage children to play, learn and create.

Babipur started as a shop for fairtrade toys and clothes, however it has since evolved into a one stop shop for all natural and organic childrens products.

Wigwam toys hopes to promote environmental issues among the next generation through eco friendly toys. They offer a range of eco-friendly toys made from organic, recycled or recyclable wood, card or wool.